Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:35 and sets at 7:25. High water at 1:12 a. m. and 1:32 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section continued warm and partly cloudy weather with conditions favorable for showers tonight or Friday; light to moderate southwesterly winds.

TO BUILD AT ROSEMONT.

A contract was today signed for the handsome residence which Mr. E. H. Kemper is to build on Rosemont avenue, just west of Mount Vernon avenue and adjoining Mr. Slaymaker's new residence.

Mr. Milton Dana Morrill, the architect for the Rosemont Development Co., has proposed the plans and Mr. S. D. DeVaughan is contractor for this work.

The house is of the Spanish colonial style having a cement porch with concrete columns across the front. Upon the first floor is the reception hall with an attractive staircase, the large living room with window seat, library and dining room, kitchen and pantries. Upon the second story five large chambers with ample closets and tiled bath. The third story contains servants rooms. The house is to be of dark arch brick similar to the Fairfax apartment house, the upper story being of pebble dash. The house is well planned so that no space is lost in long halls and the entire first floor can be opened up and thrown together when desired.

There are now seven houses under construction and five more are to be under way soon. The Rosemont Company is sparing no money to make this suburb the most attractive and desirable about Washington and the improvement and houses built are only of the best designs and substantially constructed. The attractive concrete station, which was designed by the same architect, is now entirely complete and will be occupied within a few days. It is complete and sanitary throughout and it is arranged to flush the entire floor with hose.

It is the intention to push Mr. Kemper's house to completion so that it can be occupied in the early fall.

A fine residence has just been completed at Braddock Heights, and Mr. Archie Nalls will build a modern frame residence on the lot recently purchased by him on Duke street. Mr. Samuel D. DeVaughan is the contractor for each of the buildings mentioned above.

SENT TO GRAND JURY.

As was stated in the Gazette, Thomas Wade, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officer G. O. on suspicion of entering Mr. A. S. Doniphan's store Fairfax apartment house, northeast corner of King and Columbus streets, Tuesday night and stealing $2 and several pocket knives, also taking $5 from the office of the electric railway in the same room.

The chief later arrested John, alias Jonas, Thompson, another colored boy, on suspicion of being a party to the robbery. Wade, at first denied, the theft, but he subsequently made a statement on lines similar to those of Henry Smith in reference to the S-bulldozer. He admitted having entered the place, and said that he was compelled to do so by Thompson. Thompson, he alleges, met him about 1 o'clock yesterday morning and told him if he did not accompany him into the store he would cut his throat with a knife. Wade claims he went into the cellar, but no farther. Thompson denied having committed the robbery.

The accused were brought before the Police Court this morning, when it was shown that an axe had been used to force an entrance and a bolt pried from a door; also that a candle had been used in the dumb waiter through which the thieves entered the first floor from the cellar. Wade repeated his story to the effect that he had been forced by Thompson to become a partner in the robbery. Thompson denied all knowledge of the affair. Both men were sent on to the grand jury.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.

A gentleman of this city a few days ago received a letter from an acquaintance who lives in Pennsylvania. The writer states that he has recently bought a farm of one hundred acres for $4,000, and that he desires to employ an honest colored woman, about 35 or 40 years old, to assist his wife in housework, milking and working in the garden. He also states that if the woman has a child he or she can be utilized in running errands. The correspondent offers to pay six dollars a month for a woman who can meet all his requirements. Should any colored female reading this notice conclude to accept this position, she can proceed first to Washington, thence to Harrisburg, thence via the Philadelphia and Reading road to Allentown, thence via the Lehigh Valley road to Bethlehem, thence via the Pennsylvania road again to Perkasie, from which point the applicant will hunt up Sader's livery stable at which place a vehicle can be hired to transport her to the farm of the writer. It is safe to say that there will be no applicants for this position, from this section, certainly not during the excursion season.

EARLY MORNING FIGHT.

The neighborhood of upper Duke street was excited at an early hour this morning by a fight between Florence Gaskins, Henrietta Pines and Ida and John Washington, all colored. The trouble was said to have had its origin in the first named calling the Pines woman's attention to the fact that her son, Dick Pines, was on his way to the electric chair for killing a white man. During the fight Ida Washington was struck with a brick thrown by Florence Gaskins, resulting in an ugly cut over her right eye. By this time the three women and the man became "mixed-up" in a rough and tumble encounter. Officers Gill and Nicholson appeared and took the combatants in charge. They were later brought before the Police Court. Henrietta Pines and John Washington were dismissed, and Ida Washington was fined $5 and the Gaskins woman $10.

Special for Saturday Only. Queen Quality Ladies' Russian Calf Pumps $3.50; custom grade for $1.98. J. A. Marshall &amp; Bro., 422 King Street.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Cato presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning: Thomas Wade and John Thompson, both colored, charged with breaking into and robbing the store of A. S. Doniphan and the ticket office of the electric railway company, were sent on to the grand jury.

A woman, charged with injuring property, was dismissed.

Henrietta Pines and John Washington, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were dismissed. Ida Washington and Florence Gaskins, both colored, charged with similar offenses, were fined the former $5 and the latter $10.

A young white man, charged with loitering on the northeast corner of King and Royal streets, was fined $1.

"Sister" Williams and Isaac Williams, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were dismissed. Walter Bryant, colored, charged with similar offenses, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

The closing exercises of the William McKinley Normal and Industrial School (colored) took place Tuesday. The programme was very interesting.

Rev. Dr. Winters, of Cuba, addressed the school on the importance and necessity of proper industrial training.

George H. Ridout, of Butte, Montana, delivered the valedictory address.

Rev. Dr. S. P. W. Drew, after an address, presented to a class of ten certificates of scholarship and deportment.

The fall term of the school will begin next October.

The board of trustees later held their annual meeting. Rev. R. B. Robinson, secretary and treasurer of the school submitted his annual report which was approved. Secretary Robinson stated that the new building had been erected in honor of two eminent friends of the institution known as the Creel-Leger. He also said the administration building would be finished in August of this year when it would be ready for dedication. The board adjourned till August when officers and teachers will be chosen.

AMUSEMENTS.

Notwithstanding the intense heat the amusement houses are having fair crowds and presenting good bills. At the Surprise, beginning tonight and continuing till Saturday night, there will be that prince of character comedians, Eddie Collins; Wise and West, two of the cleverest black face comedians on the stage, and a special trio, White, Denison and White, who are bound to please. At the Alexandria Amusement Company there will be a special selection of amusing pictures tonight. This is a comfortable hall and a first-class place to spend an hour. Another handsome present will be given away tonight.

At the Opera House last evening an appreciative audience witnessed the performance. For the next three nights there will be an entire change of programme including Madame Helene Morena, that celebrated singer. The entertainment furnished the next three nights will be a rare treat.

STATUE UNVEILED.

"Flag day," June 14, of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle was appropriately celebrated in the presentation of the handsome bronze statue of Washington by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the state of Washington. The monument was unveiled by the great-granddaughter of John Augustine Washington, the last member of the Washington family who owned Mount Vernon before it went into the hands of the Ladies' Association. Little Eleanor Washington Caldwell, of Seattle, only three years old, by the pulling of a cord lifted the great American flag which had veiled the statue. This little girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Caldwell, the latter a Virginian by birth, and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard, of this city.

A SANE FOURTH.

As has been the case for several years past, the authorities of this city will endeavor to so enforce the laws concerning explosives as to bring about, as near as possible, a sane Fourth of July. The senseless practice of discharging guns, pistols, cannon crackers, etc., on Christmas and the Fourth of July is by no means as universal as in by-gone days, and there is a growing sentiment against this former adjunct to these holidays. The number of accidents every year from the careless handling of firearms, toy pistols and cannon crackers on these occasions have aroused the authorities of many cities, where stringent laws have been enacted against the explosive feature of these holidays.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission announces that the fall examinations for positions in the departmental service at Washington will be held as follows in Virginia: Alexandria, September 8, October 5, 13 and October 26; Charlottesville, September 8 and October 13; Lynchburg, September 8, September 23 and October 13; Norfolk, September 8, October 2 and October 13; Richmond, September 8, October 1 and October 13; Roanoke, September 8, September 24 and October 13; Staunton, September 8, September 22 and October 13.

PASSING OF THE LACKAWANNA.

The old ferry steamer Lackawanna, which was dealt a serious blow in a collision with the Norfolk steamer Washington last November, will not be converted into a barge by her present owners, as was announced, but will be broken up. The upper portion of the steamer is being removed and the iron sent to Pennsylvania. When the boat shall have been stripped, the hull will be placed upon the ways at the shipyard where it will be cut up.

MURDERERS SENTENCED.

Officers Ferguson and Sampson this morning conducted to this city Calvin Johnson, Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey, the three negroes who were convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schultz. Johnson and Pines have been confined in the Alexandria county jail and Dorsey in Fairfax. The three men were later brought into the Corporation Court room, when Judge Barley heard arguments by Mr. L. H. Machin on a motion for a new trial for Calvin Johnson. Mr. Machin's grounds that the indictment against Johnson was insufficient; that the court had made several errors in regard to admitting testimony for the commonwealth, especially after the case had been closed and was in the hands of the jury; also that there was variance between the allegations of the indictment and the proof and that the indictment was faulty in the manner in which it alleged the killing; also that the indictment did not conclude as the constitution requires. He moved to set the verdict aside as the evidence was not sufficient to convict.

Mr. Brent argued in support of the indictment and that he had a right to prove the convictions of Johnson in the Police Court to which Mr. Machin had objected. The court then took a recess till 3:15 this afternoon.

After hearing the arguments Judge Barley overruled the motion and set aside the verdict for a new trial and sentenced Johnson to be electrocuted on September 3. Johnson was then taken to the station house singing as he entered the door, "Nearer My God To Thee."

Richard Pines was then sentenced to be electrocuted on September 10. Pines said: "Judge, yer honor, I believe in a man dying for his crime, but if you murder me for this crime it will cause God Almighty to grieve on His throne."

Eugene Dorsey was subsequently taken into court and sentenced to be electrocuted September 17.

The case of Henry Smith, who turned state's evidence in the murder trials, was continued till September 24.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. May McKenney, of this city, who has recently been residing in El Paso, Texas, is on a visit to her old home.

Miss Julia Downer has returned from Alexandria where she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hoxton at their home on Seminary Hill. —[Norfolk Ledger.]

Mr. Fitzgerald Jones will leave on Saturday for Michigan where he will reside for some months before going to Arizona where he will practice law. His many friends wish him unbounded success.

Miss Maggie May Wood, of Fort Myer Heights, and Mr. Arthur James Potter, of Falls Church, were married in Rockville Wednesday by Rev. S. R. White, of the Baptist Church, the ceremony taking place at the home of the minister.

Mrs. Zoro Hill and daughter, Lillian, have gone to Hastings-on-Hudson, New York, to be gone about two weeks.

Among this year's graduates of the Virginia Military Institute are cadets Bruce J. Downey and Eugene L. Lindsey, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Maude Harding, who has been visiting Mrs. Mary Robey on Prince street, has returned to her home in Fredericksburg.

A STATEMENT FROM REV. MR. CAVNAUGH.

An item in this column a few days ago stated that a preacher took a bottle of whiskey from the pocket of a man at the corner of King and Royal streets and after having removed the cork poured the liquor into the sewer. The minister referred to. The latter, however, denies that he deliberately took the whiskey from the man, and says the latter was under the influence of stimulants and became engaged in a conversation with him, during which the preacher, seeing the bottle in the tipsy man's pocket, asked him what it contained. The convivial individual replied that it was filled with whiskey. Mr. Cavanaugh asked the man to give him the liquor, when the bottle was handed to him as a gift. The minister after the man had voluntarily presented him with the liquor, removed the cork and poured the contents of the bottle into the sewer.

GUEST OF ALEXANDRIANS.

Mr. George Yeatman, of Baltimore, paid a visit to this city yesterday, coming from his home by way of Washington, where he met Mr. William Schaefer, of the latter city, and came over the road to Alexandria, where the two visitors were handsomely entertained by Alderman Jacob Ball and Mr. Frank M. Hill. After visiting the various points of interest, the visitors returned to their homes. Mr. Yeatman formerly lived in Virginia, having been born at Warsaw.

STRANGE CHINAMAN.

Dr. Lynch, of Franconia, notified the police department of this city last night that a well-dressed Chinaman was in his neighborhood yesterday. The doctor suggested that the oriental may be the individual now being sought by the New York police in connection with the murder of Elsie Sigel.

GLASS FACTORIES CLOSING DOWN.

The glass factories which employ hundreds of mechanics and other labor will close down next Wednesday for the summer holiday, after a prosperous season. The Virginia has already closed its plant. Notwithstanding the fact that the glass industry has suffered immensely in other parts of the country the factories in this city have had a comparatively successful season.
